

Carpet Sahib's Trail

A 9-day literary wilderness expedition

In the footsteps of Jim Corbett through Kumaon

This April, travel through Corbett's pages that once defined the Indian jungle.

4-12 APRIL 2026

The Man Behind the Myth

Before he became a symbol of tiger reserves,
Jim Corbett was a boy of Kumaon.

Hunter. Naturalist. Writer. Conservationist.

This journey traces the land that shaped his transformation.

A Story as Your Travel Guide

This trail is inspired by ‘Three Legendary Encounters’

Inspired by:

- The Muktesar Man-eater
- The Chowgarh Tigers
- The Champawat Man-eater

Trace the exact landscapes described in these stories.

Walk the Pages

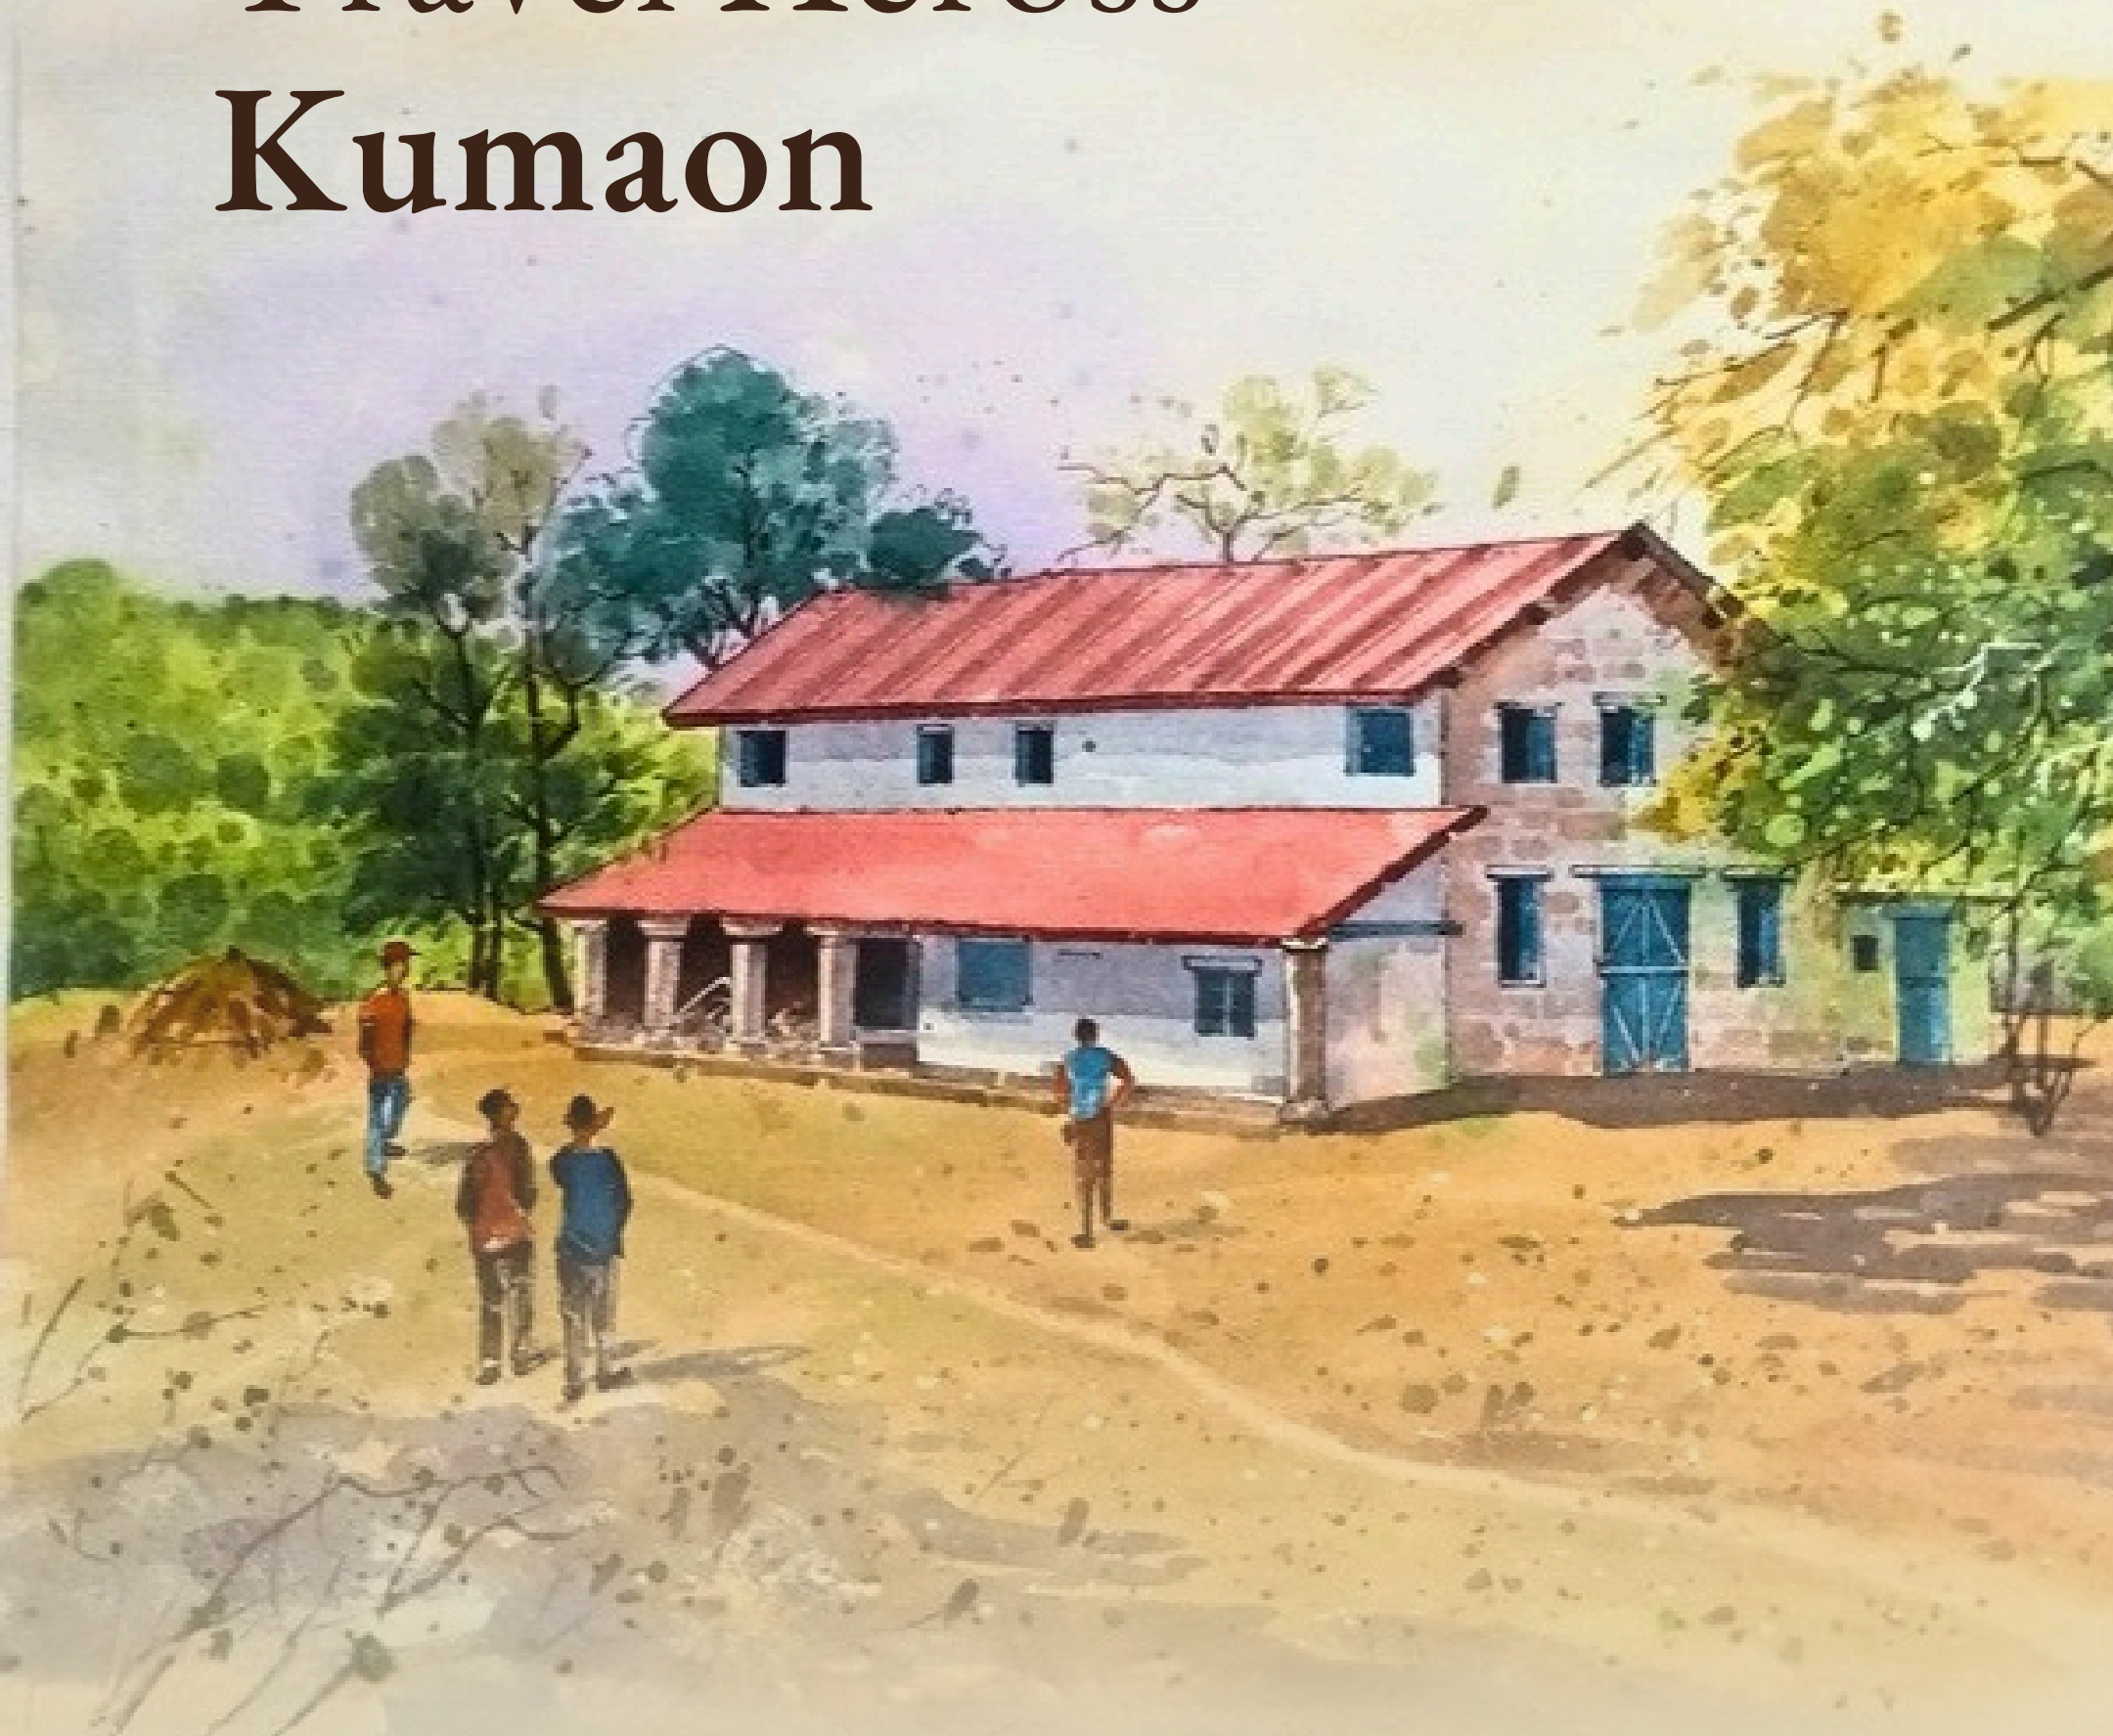

Read excerpts on location.

Stand where events unfolded.

Follow jungle roads and orchard paths.

Literature becomes geography.

Travel Across Kumaon

- Mukteshwar
- Champawat
- Kala Agar
- Syat

From Himalayan ridges to forest edges.

Camps, Homestays & Guesthouses

Stay Like a Sahib

Swiss tents in oak forests.

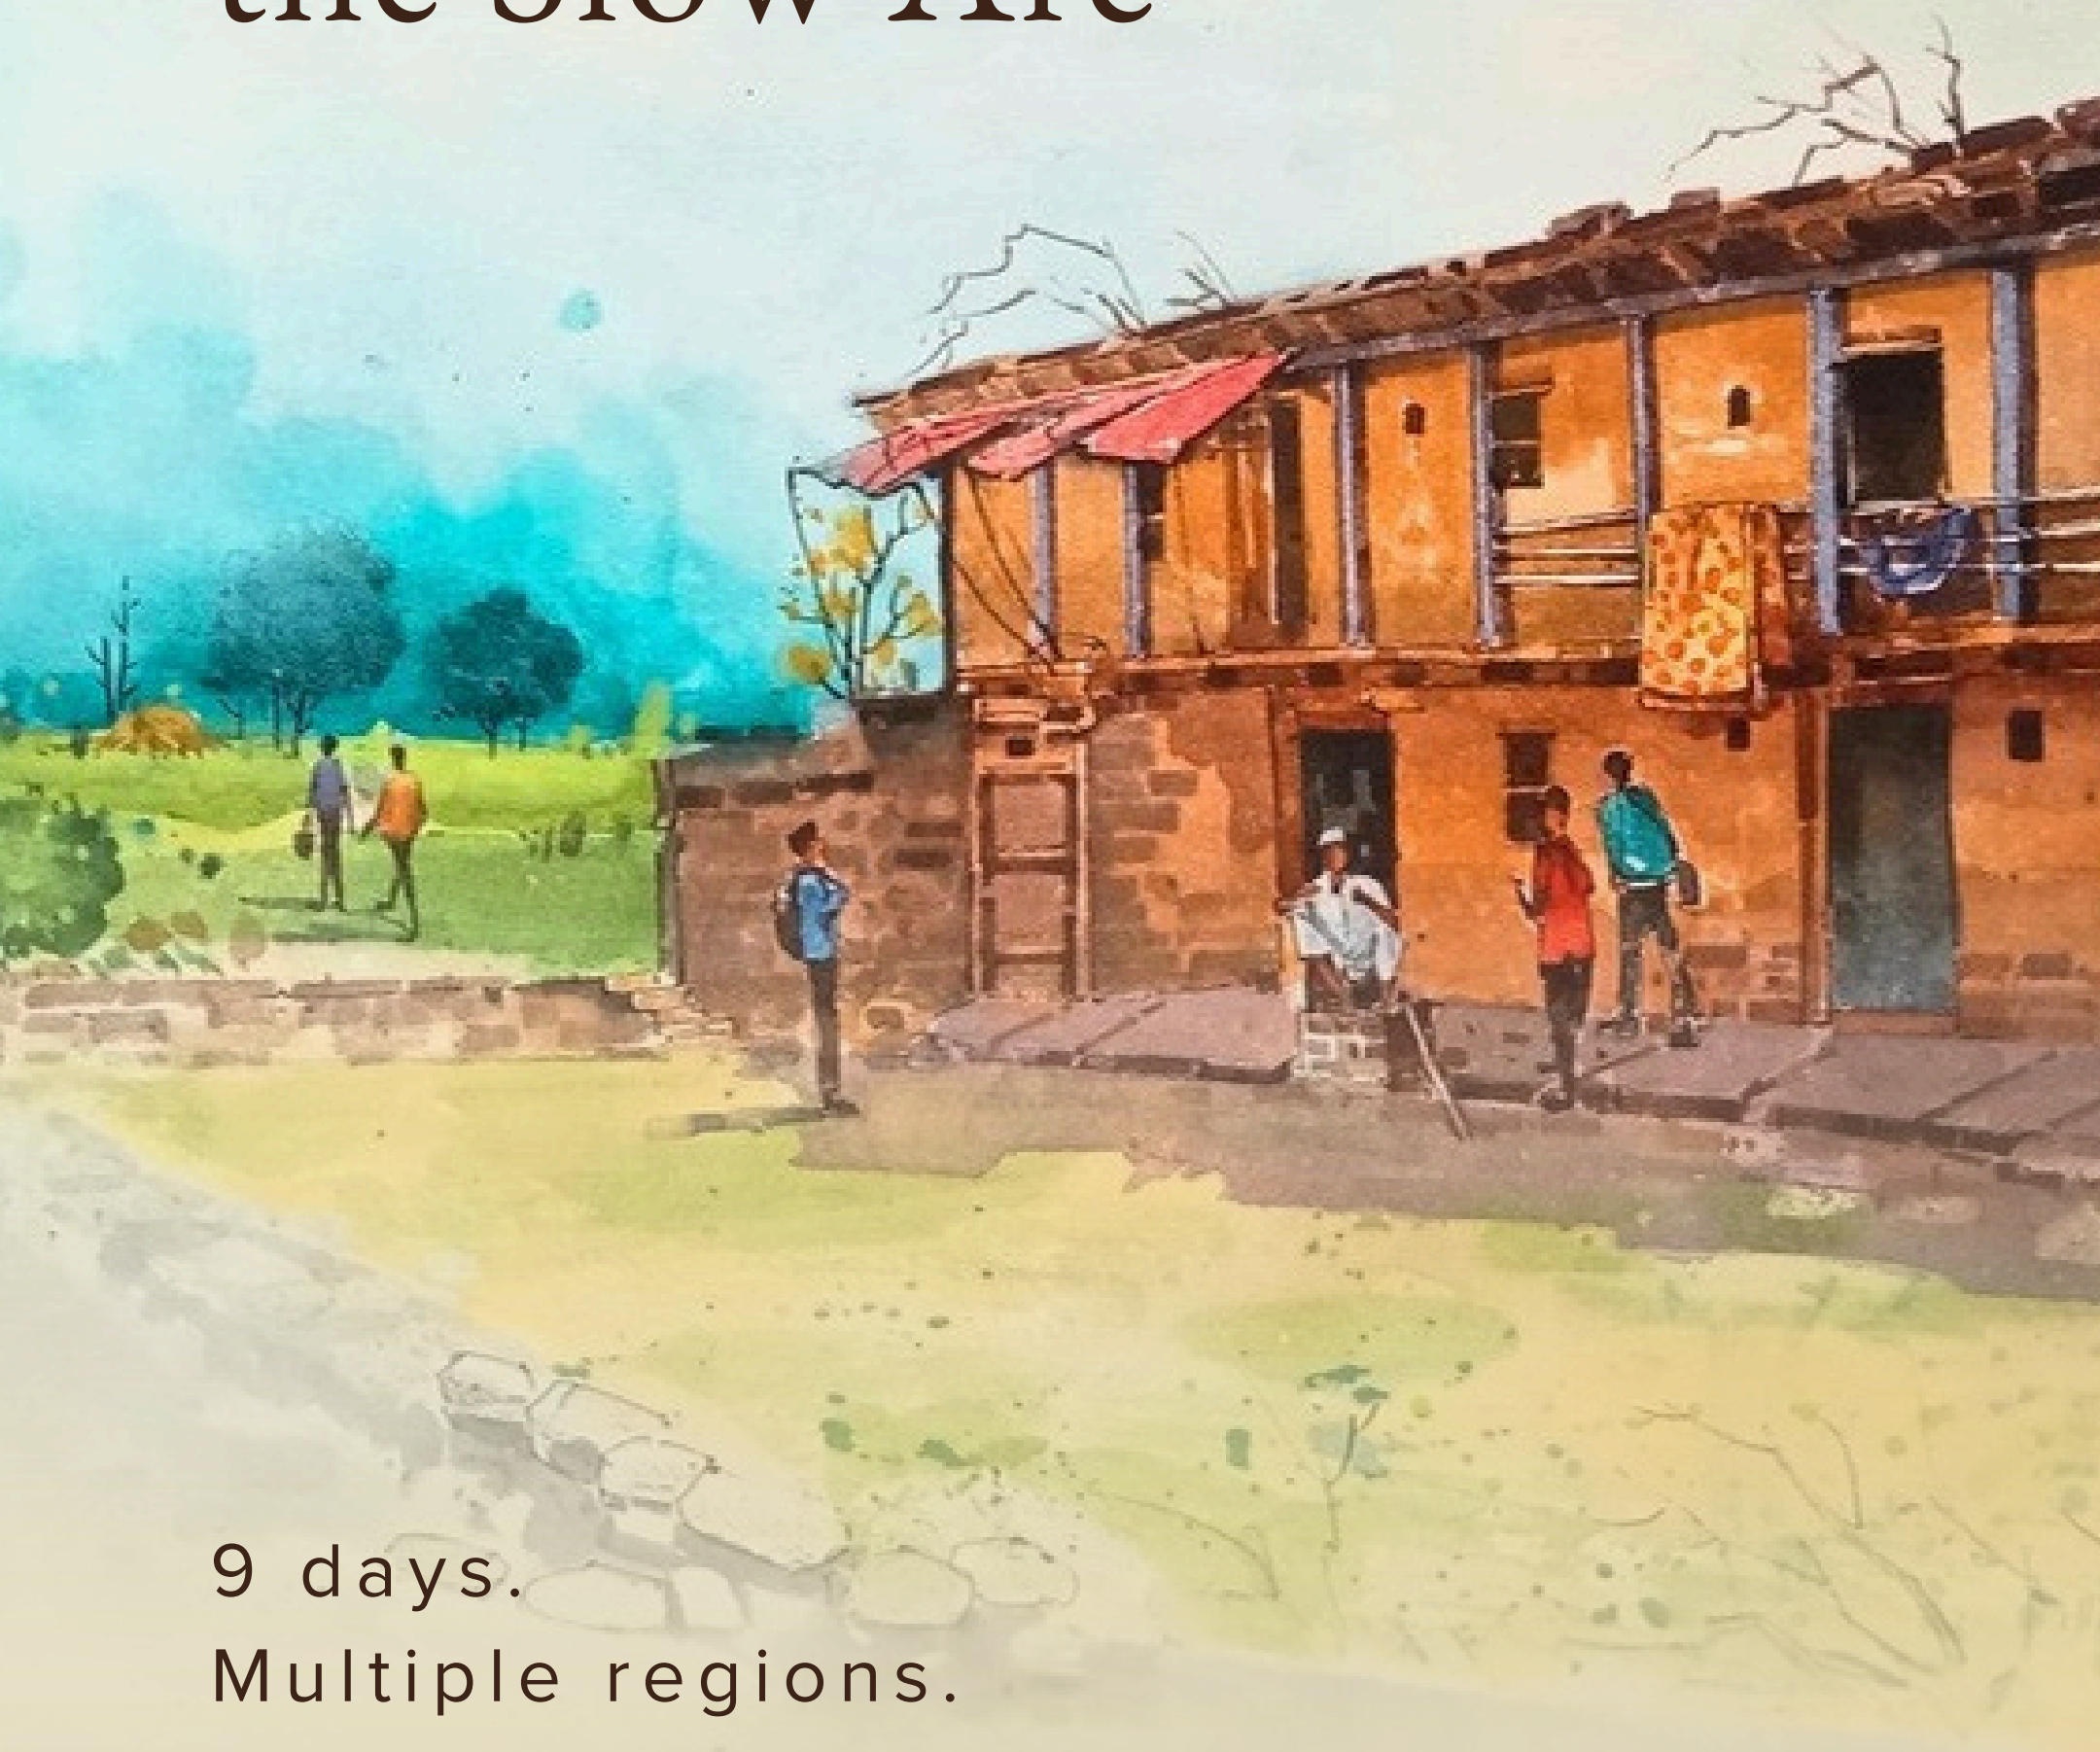

Village homestays.

Heritage guesthouses.

Forest camps by rivers.

Comfort with character.

Beyond the Park, the Slow Arc

9 days.

Multiple regions.

Layered narratives.

A journey that unfolds, rather than rushes.

A Different Kind of Wildlife Experience

Birding at dawn. Village conversations.
Picnics in the woods. Campfire evenings.
(Optional forest safari available on request.)

For those who seek depth over drama.

WILDRIFT
ADVENTURES

Fixed Departure 4-12 April 2026 Limited Group*

Early Bookings Recommended*

*WhatsApp us to receive detailed itinerary & pricing:
+91 9810808448*

